
role – listener

Description

A listener's main responsibility is listening to children/youth recite their verses and work through their handbook sections or Bible studies.

Responsibilities

- Go through child-protection training.
- Have some knowledge of Awana and standards for completing sections.
- Assist leaders in listening to verses or helping children work through handbooks.
- Give individual attention to children who may struggle with understanding.
- Be flexible – might be asked to serve in Sparks one week and in T&T the following week.